

Please notice the pattern of Sinclair. They are being politically biased despite their claim to the contrary when they blocked Nightline this year from reading names of soldiers that died in combat. Sinclair is trying to have it both ways now with this Anti-Kerry broadcast. This biased behavior is plain wrong and I'm alarmed at where our media heading.